

State Job Bank Survey

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) includes a provision encouraging employers to post ARRA-created jobs on state job banks. The purpose of this survey is for NASWA to determine which states will require employers to post ARRA-created jobs on their State job banks, and the methods states might use to do so.

1. Please enter your personal information in the boxes provided below.

Name:

State:

Title:

2. Does your State require contractors receiving ARRA funding to list ARRA jobs in the State job bank? If yes, please move to question 5.

Yes

No

3. Are you considering requiring contractors receiving ARRA funds to list ARRA jobs in your State job bank?

Yes

No

Unsure

4. If yes, when do you expect this to happen?

5. If yes, is your State implementing this requirement through a Governor's executive order? If yes, please email boiler plate contract language your State agency will be using to enforce this requirement to pgerassimides@naswa.org.

Yes

No

Unsure

6. If yes, what are the methods an employer can use to list ARRA jobs in the State job bank?

State Job Bank Survey

7. If your State is not requiring contractors receiving ARRA funds to list ARRA jobs in the State job bank, what methods is your State using to encourage ARRA contractors to do so?

8. Will you be establishing a mechanism to compile a list of contractors receiving ARRA funds in your State?

Yes

No

9. If yes, what is that mechanism?

10. What kind of policy and technical issues stand in the way of your State requiring contractors receiving ARRA funds to list ARRA jobs in your State job bank?

11. Could you provide the contact name and information of someone in your State NASWA could work with regarding this issue?

Name:

Email:

Telephone: